Financial Grant Application Information

Purpose of the Fund

The purpose of the Educational Grant Fund is to provide scholarship funds to Certified Rubenfeld Synergists in the form of a grant to be applied toward an event of activity that will update and improve their skills such that it will benefit the general public, both individuals and groups.

Scholarships will be granted for bona fide educational opportunities that enhance the skills of Rubenfeld Synergy. These may include, but are not limited to, attendance at the annual INARS Conference, training in the Feldenkrais Method, Alexander Technique, Gestalt Therapy, or bringing a Master Synergist to a regional meeting of Synergists for advanced training or review.

Eligibility Requirements

All Certified Rubenfeld Synergists are eligible to apply. Certified Synergists are those who are current signers of the Rubenfeld Synergy Method Standards of Practice and Ethical Principles, and have paid the appropriate dues for the current billing period of BASEC. Applicants must demonstrate financial need to the satisfaction of the selection committee. Selection will be non-discriminatory and without regard to race, religion, age, disability, gender, sexual orientation, national origin, or employment status.

When to Apply

The selection committee will review applications twice annually. The deadline for applications for the first yearly review is March 15; decisions will be sent out by April 15. The deadline for applications for the second yearly review is September 15; the decisions will be sent out by October 15. Activity must begin within seven (7) months of receiving a grant.

Terms of the Grant

1. Activity must begin within seven (7) months of receiving a grant.
2. Upon completion of the event, recipients are required to present to the Board of Trustees a brief written report describing the event and its value.
3. Recipients are required to present to the Board of Trustees of the Educational Grant Fund, Inc. at least one of the following:
 - A copy of continuing education credits or certification;
 - A receipt showing fees paid, or a request for direct payment of fees to be made from the fund.

If the terms of the grant, as stated above, are violated, the recipient is required to return the funds.
